synopsis:

“God can’t use me, or at least he shouldn’t use me.” We’ve probably all thought it at some point. However, the Bible shows us that God uses flawed people in powerful ways. Over and over again we find that our shortcomings are an opportunity for God to teach us to rely on Him.

Consider the people featured in this video, they were just as unqualified as you. They all possessed very real weaknesses and faced very real challenges, but now we remember them for their faithfulness. It is important to recognize that just like those before us, God desires to use all of us for His glory despite our fallen human condition.
